

SHIPBOARD SAFETY OFFICER (SBSO)

Course Features:

- ▶ The course is conducted via team workshops and group exercises and delivered by our experienced instructors.
- ▶ Each course is delivered with emphasis on company specific policy and procedures.
- ▶ Lectures are supported by case studies, group discussions, role play exercises and experience sharing.

Course Details:

Duration : 3 days
Every Wednesday to Friday

Venue: AMTI, Gurgaon

Course Objective:

The three days comprehensive SBSO Course at AMTI is designed with an objective to provide useful insight to all those involved in the implementation of the Safety Management onboard vessels for all day to day operational aspects in compliance with the guidelines stipulated in ISM Code, STCW code, TMSA and ILO MLC.

Key Objectives:

- Knowledge of the general dangers involved in shipboard operations.
- To Understand the role of a safety officer.
- To Understand the importance of identifying general hazards and spreading safety awareness.
- To Carry out Risk assessment.
- To Carry out accident investigations and root cause analysis.
- Handle stress and fatigue and understand its implications to accidents.
- Understand the importance of reporting near misses and accidents.
- Handle internal and external safety audits.

Course Contents:

The main contents of the course is in line with ISM Code and TMSA guidelines as:-

- Maritime Regulatory Framework
- Key ISM Requirements & implementation Problems,
- Review of related applicable Rules & Regulation, codes, guidelines & standards,
- Continual Improvement and the role of the Safety Officer,
- Risk Assessment & Incident Investigation,
- Daily Ship Safety Officer responsibilities,
- Theory and Practice of Auditing,
- Effective Communications with shipboard staff & office management,
- Practical handling of Accidents, Near Misses, Non Conformities, findings etc.
- Undergoing Internal and External Audits
- Case Study on ISM Auditing and vessel inspection.

Suggested Target Group:

Senior Shipboard Management and Operational level officers, as appropriate

Course Methodology:

Highly interactive classes, practical team exercises, case studies and CBT

We will be pleased to undertake company specific training programmes and customized training programmes. For queries email to ops@amti.in